

STUDY LOAD

---

The minimum study load for full-time student status is two courses per four-month term.

Students should consult with Student Financial Services regarding federal requirements for financial aid to determine the course load required for federal aid purposes.