Non-Degree Seeking Options

High School Concurrent Enrollment Program

Los Angeles Pacific University offers high-performing high school students the opportunity to enroll in college-level courses (100- and 200-level only) through its Concurrent Enrollment Program. These courses may articulate to meet high school credits, and may be transferable to a student's future post-secondary program. To participate in the Concurrent Enrollment Program, high school students must have a minimum 3.0 GPA at their school (at least one full term must be completed to establish high school GPA) and complete the program criteria (Please contact admissions@lapu.edu for more information).

Non-Degree-Seeking Student Course Options

Undergraduate non-degree-seeking student course options:

- The student must fulfill all course prerequisites.
- Availability is based on course enrollment.

Unofficial transcripts on file are acceptable until a student wishes to enroll in a program, at which time the student will be subject to all admissions policies.

Financial Aid

The only type of Financial Aid (<https://catalog.lapu.edu/undergrad/financial/#financialaidtext>) available for non-degree seeking options is Alternative/Private Loans.
