

CONCENTRATION IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

The concentration in Public Administration introduces students to the roles and responsibilities of managers and leaders in the public service sector. Students will become familiar with various functions of public administrators in the areas of leadership theory, finance, risk management, change management, and human resources. Particular attention is paid to the relationship of various departments and agencies within a governmental structure.

Requirements

Requirement	Title	Credits
CRJU 430	Principles of Public Administration	3
CRJU 460	Risk Analysis and Security	3
ORGS 350	Leadership Ethics	3
ORGS 420	Human Resource Strategy	3
ORGS 460	Leadership and Change	3
Total Credits		15

The Public Administration concentration cannot be paired with the Criminal Justice or Organizational Leadership majors or with the Organizational Leadership concentration.